The 75-member Council Rock High School South Amateur Radio Club, KC3JND, was founded in 2014 and thrives with the support of local hams and clubs as well as three of the school's science teachers, who are also hams. Read this month's "Club Station" column by KC3JND members Taylor Arnosky, KC3WFW, and Alba Sinani, to learn about the club's ham radio projects and operations, and how multidisciplinary learning is woven into all of it.
